

Senior Interaction Designer, London

Working closely with our growing team of designers, the successful candidate will help deliver the complex digital interaction and information design projects we undertake for our clients.

This is a full-time role based in our London office. We offer a competitive salary with benefits.

Responsibilities

- Working with the Head of Interaction Design, you will manage small teams of interaction and visual designers to plan and produce project deliverables, and ensure the coherence of their collective thoughts.
- Present and justify design solutions to client and internal stakeholders.
- Help mentor and line manage other practitioners within the team.
- Cost and plan design activities, report on their status to the programme management team and notify them of any risks.
- Meet deadlines and budgetary recovery targets, whilst maintaining the expected level of quality.
- Consideration for, and identification of, inherent technical constraints.
- Support the wider sales team by identifying business opportunities, generating ideas and suggestions for internal projects outside of paid project work.
- Contribute to company blog posts, social media, white papers, attending or speaking at industry conferences.

Required skills and experience

- A portfolio demonstrating a deep understanding of insight-driven, collaborative experience and interaction design, showing how ideas have been generated and executed.
- The ability to use the right methodologies and deliverables on the right projects.
- Expertise in managing design teams that have solved complex user interface design challenges across mobile, tablet, desktop and other devices.

- Excellent communication skills, enabling design solutions to be presented confidently and articulately.
- A robust working knowledge of design software including Axure, Omnigraffle, Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign.
- Education to degree level, or a postgraduate qualification in a relevant subject.
- Experience of working within a multi-disciplinary digital agency or equivalent client-side position for the last four years.

Essential qualities

- Excellent client relationship skills: You must be able to create rapport and relationships across a range of clients and functions.
- Excellent communication skills: You must be fully-confident taking on a client-facing role with the necessary skills required to work with and manage clients, suppliers and colleagues.
- Passion and creative thinking: We're passionate about delivering high-quality, effective and value-added services to our clients.
- Attention to detail: We pride ourselves on the quality of our deliverables, from an email to a client presentation. Achieving this, especially when under pressure, is a critical success factor for the role.

Package

Competitive salary, bonus scheme, 25 days' holiday (increases to 30 with long service awards), matched contributory pension scheme, death in service cover and private medical cover. This is a permanent position.
